

Dear [REDACTED] research@bigbrotherwatch.org.uk

Freedom of Information Request Reference No: 2018040001107

I write in connection with your request for information which was received by the Metropolitan Police Service (MPS) on 25/04/2018. I note you seek access to the following information:

In response to a previous FOIA you stated that there were a total of 104 alerts that have been generated by the Facial Recognition System

Of these 104 alerts that were generated please confirm the number of confirmed positive identifications and incorrect system alerts per event i.e. Notting Hill Carnival 2016, Notting Hill Carnival 2017 and Remembrance Day? .

SEARCHES TO LOCATE INFORMATION

To locate the information relevant to your request searches were conducted within the MPS. The searches located information relevant to your request.

DECISION

I have today decided to disclose the located information to you in full.

Please find below information pursuant to your request above. Please note that we do not consider these as false positive matches because additional checks and balances are in place to confirm identification following system alerts.

Identifications		Confirmed +ve Incorrect System Alerts
Notting Hill 2017	95	1
Remembrance Day	6	1

Yours sincerely

[REDACTED]

COMPLAINT RIGHTS

Are you unhappy with how your request has been handled or do you think the decision is incorrect?

You have the right to require the Metropolitan Police Service (MPS) to review their decision.

Prior to lodging a formal complaint you are welcome to discuss the response with the case officer who dealt with your request.

Complaint

If you are dissatisfied with the handling procedures or the decision of the MPS made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) regarding access to information you can lodge a complaint with the MPS to have the decision reviewed.

Complaints should be made in writing, within forty (40) working days from the date of the refusal notice, and addressed to:

FOI Complaint
Information Rights Unit
PO Box 57192
London
SW6 1SF
foi@met.police.uk

In all possible circumstances the MPS will aim to respond to your complaint within 20 working days.

The Information Commissioner

After lodging a complaint with the MPS if you are still dissatisfied with the decision you may make application to the Information Commissioner for a decision on whether the request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of the Act.
