If the police stop and search you, remember:

Detained – You must be told that you're being detained

Identity – The officer must identify themselves

Station – They must tell you which station they came from

Reason – You must be told the reason for the search

Object – You must be told what they are searching for

Basis – You must be told what legislation they are using

Entitlement – You must be told that you're entitled to a copy of the search record
